73030.8.7
MAXIMUM RELEASE
DATE

The maximum release date is calculated by adding the term ordered by the court to the term starts date and subtracting applicable preprison credits.

73030.8.8
MINIMUM RELEASE
DATES

ISL (crime committed prior to 7-1-77):

- The minimum term is established by statute.
- The minimum eligible parole date (MEPD) is determined by adding the statutory minimum term of confinement or the result of computation of aggregate minimum terms to the received date and subtracting any applicable preprison credits.

DSL (PC Section 2931, crime committed on or after 7-1-77):

The minimum DSL (MIN DSL) release date is calculated by subtracting all applicable days of goodtime credit from the maximum release date.

- This date shall be adjusted by any credits forfeited and/or restored in the disciplinary process.

DSL IWTIP (PC Section 2933, crime committed on or after 1-1-83):

The earliest possible release date (EPRD) is determined in these steps:

- Subtract all earned worktime credit, adjusted by any loss/restoration, from the maximum release date, the result of which is the current release date.
- Subtract from the current release date the date through which credit was applied.
- Divide the remaining number of days eligible for credit based on credit earning status. e.g. 30 1/2 on 33 1/2
A1/A A2/B
- Subtract the resulting number of days from the current release date. That date is the EPRD.

An EPRD is a projected date contingent upon the inmate remaining in the same credit earning work group, having no unexcused absences and no forfeited or restored credit.

Legal Status Information

A separate BPT Form 1010 shall be used by the specialist to compute the release date for the DSL indeterminate case. This BPT Form 1010 shall be attached to the original form with a notation, "see ISL BPT Form 1010 dated _____".

This release date shall be used as the term start date in the computation on the CDC Form 678, Confinement Computation, for the recalculation of the remaining counts or cases.

A PC 1170.2(b) (extended term) screening shall be made at the time of initial processing to ensure completion prior to 90 days after receipt.

Upon completion of the recalculation of the counts or cases, the CDC Form 678 shall be presented to a BPT panel for signature.

73010.6.17
DETERMINATE
1-YEAR AND-
1-DAY TERMS

PC 4532(a), Escape From County Jail Without Force, where the crime was committed on or after 1-1-85, has a determinate sentence of one year and one day.

The procedure for producing a manual face sheet as outlined in DOM Subsection 73010.6 shall be followed except for DOM Subsection 73010.6.3, Release Data. Release dates shall not be calculated by the LPU on these cases. The specialist at the institution housing the inmate shall compute the release date upon receipt of the manual face sheet.

No referral to the BPT is required and those cases are calculated in the same manner as for other DSL terms.

On cases with life terms, enter the following information above the name, number, etc., at the bottom of the first page:

- Defense Counsel.
- Investigating agency.

- Work Group C: Zero credit will be earned if I refuse a full time assignment.
- Work Group D: When I am in lockup status due to a disciplinary infraction zero credit will be earned for a period equal to the number of days of any credit loss, which may be extended in six month increments thereafter.

I am also aware that my work group may be changed, by the Department, due to my behavior and/or work performance. This waiver will be effective only when accepted by the Department. I am also aware that this waiver is irrevocable.

Total Term: 15 Yrs. to Life plus 3 years.

You were received 12-3-87 with a term of (DSL only) 3 years. The term added to the received date is 12-3-90. From this date, presentence credits of 199 days granted by the court and postsentence credits of 15 days administratively granted are deducted. Your Maximum Release Date is 5-3-90.

One-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the post sentence credits of 15 days (7) is deducted from your Maximum Release Date (5-3-90) to arrive at your Maximum Adjusted Release Date of 4-26-90.

You have earned 402 credits from your Waiver date of 12-3-87 through 2-28-89. You have lost 0 days through disciplinaries. You have been restored 0 days credit by the Classification Committee. The net total credit to be applied to your Maximum Adjusted Release Date is 402.

Attached is a calculation form showing that your Maximum Adjusted Release Date less your net credit leaves a current Release Date of 3-20-89. From this point we are projecting your Earliest Possible Release Date. All credit has been applied through 2-28-89. From 2-28-89 to your current Release Date of 3-20-89, there are 20 days. You are earning credit based on work group A1. (One day earned for one day worked.) Therefore, you will have to serve $\frac{1}{2}$ of these days prior to being released. One-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of these days is 20. Ten days subtracted from your Current Release Date of 3-20-89 leaves an Earliest Possible Release Date of 3-10-89. Life term began 3-10-89.

To calculate life term calculation:

To your earliest possible release date 3-10-89 add the 15 years of the life term to reach your base date. Subtract total preconfinement credit (0) to obtain maximum eligible parole date 3-10-2004.

Good time credit is calculated by taking your Life Term start date 3-10-89, subtracting from the minimum eligible parole date 3-10-2004, to get days in custody of department 5479, minus post sentence credit 0, this is the days in custody on which good time credit may be earned 5479. Divide these days by 3 gives you your good time credit 1827. Take your maximum eligible parole date 3-10-2004, minus the good time credit 1827, will give you the minimum eligible parole date, 3-10-99.

Total Term: 15 Yrs. to Life plus 3 years.

You were received 12-3-87 with a term of (DSL only) 3 years. The term added to the received date is 12-3-90. From this date, presentence credits of 199 days granted by the court and postsentence credits of 15 days administratively granted are deducted. Your Maximum Release Date is 5-3-90.

One-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the post sentence credits of 15 days (7) is deducted from your Maximum Release Date (5-3-90) to arrive at your Maximum Adjusted Release Date of 4-26-90.

You have earned 402 credits from your Waiver date of 12-3-87 through 2-28-89. You have lost 0 days through disciplinarys. You have been restored 0 days credit by the Classification Committee. The net total credit to be applied to your Maximum Adjusted Release Date is 402.

Attached is a calculation form showing that your Maximum Adjusted Release Date less your net credit leaves a current Release Date of 3-20-89. From this point we are projecting your Earliest Possible Release Date. All credit has been applied through 2-28-89. From 2-28-89 to your current Release Date of 3-20-89, there are 20 days. You are earning credit based on work group A1. (One day earned for one day worked.) Therefore, you will have to serve $\frac{1}{2}$ of these days prior to being released. One-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of these days is 20. Ten days subtracted from your Current Release Date of 3-20-89 leaves an Earliest Possible Release Date of 3-10-89. Life term began 3-10-89.

To calculate life term calculation:

To your earliest possible release date 3-10-89 add the 15 years of the life term to reach your base date. Subtract total preconfinement credit (0) to obtain maximum eligible parole date 3-10-2004.

Good time credit is calculated by taking your Life Term start date 3-10-89, subtracting from the minimum eligible parole date 3-10-2004, to get days in custody of department 5479, minus post sentence credit 0, this is the days in custody on which good time credit may be earned 5479. Divide these days by 3 gives you your good time credit 1827. Take your maximum eligible parole date 3-10-2004, minus the good time credit 1827, will give you the minimum eligible parole date 3-10-99.

See attached computation worksheets.

EXHIBIT D

	California Department of Corrections OPERATIONS MANUAL	Chapter: 70000 Case Records Information
		Subchapter: 73000 Legal
		Section: 73010 Legal Status Information

These cases require special processing following determination by the BPT. The procedures for producing a manually prepared Legal Status Summary as outlined in DOM Subsection 73010.6 will be followed.

These procedures shall be followed in preparing, computing, and recording BPT actions for DSL indeterminate terms.

DSL Indeterminate Term Only

Regular ISL procedures shall be followed using the BPT Form 1010 for recording the determination and making the period of confinement computation.

DSL Indeterminate
CC with DSL Term

If the minimum release date for the DSL term is later than the statutory maximum for the DSL indeterminate term, no BPT parole hearing is required. If the DSL minimum is earlier than the maximum term for the indeterminate offense, the inmate shall be scheduled for an ISL parole hearing. The later release date shall be the controlling release date.

DSL Indeterminate
CC with ISL Term

Regular ISL procedures shall be followed using the BPT Form 1010 for recording the determination and making the period of confinement computation. In addition, a PC 1170.2(a) recalculation shall be made for the ISL terms.

DSL Indeterminate
CS with DSL Term

Schedule the DSL indeterminate case for the first available ISL parole consideration hearing for determination of the indeterminate case only. A BPT Form 1010 shall be used for this determination. The reception date for the ISL computation shall be the date originally received on the offenses involved.

The release date for the DSL indeterminate offense shall be the term start date on the DSL term. A DSL computation shall then be completed for the remaining DSL term.

DSL Indeterminate
CS with ISL Term

Schedule an ISL parole consideration hearing on the first available ISL hearing calendar. The ISL portion of the BPT determination shall be processed in accordance with existing ISL hearing procedures.

Combined DSL
Recalculation
and ISL Hearing
for the DSL
Indeterminate Case

During the ISL parole consideration hearing, the BPT hearing panel shall enter in the comments section of the BPT Form 1010, a determination of the amount of time assessed for the DSL indeterminate offense for the purpose of determining the CS factor of the recalculation.

Department of

A separate BPT Form 1010 shall be used by the specialist to compute the release date for the DSL indeterminate case. This BPT Form 1010 shall be attached to the original form with a notation, "see ISL BPT Form 1010 dated _____".

This release date shall be used as the term start date in the computation on the CDC Form 678, Confinement Computation, for the recalculation of the remaining counts or cases.

A PC 1170.2(b) (extended term) screening shall be made at the time of initial processing to ensure completion prior to 90 days after receipt.

Upon completion of the recalculation of the counts or cases, the CDC Form 678 shall be presented to a BPT panel for signature.

1-DAY TERMS

PC 4532(a), Escape From County Jail Without Force, where the crime was committed on or after 1-1-85, has a determinate sentence of one year and one day.

The procedure for producing a manual face sheet as outlined in DOM Subsection 73010.6 shall be followed except for DOM Subsection 73010.6.3, Release Data. Release dates shall not be calculated by the LPU on these cases. The specialist at the institution housing the inmate shall compute the release date upon receipt of the manual face sheet.

No referral to the BPT is required and those cases are calculated in the same manner as for other DSL terms.

On cases with life terms, enter the following information above the name, number, etc., at the bottom of the first page:

73030.17
ISL TERMS

Terms for offenses committed prior to 7-1-77 under the Indeterminate Sentence Law pursuant to PC Section 1168(b), where release was determined by the paroling authority, are called ISL cases.

73030.17.1
RECALCULATION OF ISL TERMS

The majority of terms under the ISL require recalculation based on the Determinate Sentence Law (DSL) pursuant to PC Section 1170.2.

The DSL provides several indeterminate sentences for specific crimes. Those crimes which remain indeterminate do not require recalculation.

- Any case for which the statutory penalty is one-year-and-one-day, except as specified determinate in the PC, is an indeterminate sentence under this section. See DOM subsection 73010.6.18 on DSL indeterminate terms.

73030.17.2
ISL PRIMARY TERM FIX

In re Rodriguez (14 Cal 3d 639 1975) held that the paroling authority (BPT) must determine the time of incarceration based on the severity of the crime(s). AND "PROMPTLY" UPON ENTERING CDC.

73030.17.3
EXTENDED TERM CONSIDERATIONS

PC Section 1170.2(b) gives the BPT authority to hold hearings for the purpose of possibly extending an inmate's normally recalculated DSL term. These are called Extended Term Hearings (ETH).

73030.17.3.1
FIRST SCREENING

The Correctional Case Records Manager (CCRM) is responsible for the first screening of an inmate's case dynamics to determine if an ETH may be necessary. The CCRM shall be guided by the law in determining if the inmate fits the criteria for an ETH.

A CDC Form 678 shall be completed in all applicable cases even for those not meeting the criteria for an ETH. The CDC Form 678 shall accompany the central file through the screening process.

73030.17.3.2
CRITERIA FOR EXTENDED TERM HEARINGS

The CCRM shall indicate an ETH is required if the inmate was convicted of any of the following crimes, or in the following circumstances, whether the count was stayed or resulted in a commitment to State prison:

- PC Section 187, Second degree murder.
- PC Section 192, Voluntary manslaughter.
- PC Section 203, Mayhem.
- PC Sections 211/213, First degree robbery or robbery with great bodily injury.

NOT AN ETH CASE,
PC 1170.2(A)

The CDC Form 144, DSL Control Card, shall be checked in the appropriate space to indicate it is not an ETH case and it will be filed with other CDC Form 144 cards in the normal manner, with earliest release dates first.

73030.17.3.4
INITIALLY AN ETH CASE

If the correctional case records manager, during the first screening, determines that the inmate meets ETH criteria, the CDC Form 144 card shall be marked to reflect it as a PC Section 1170.2(b) case. The DSL Control Card shall be filed with other ETH DSL Control Cards.

73030.17.3.5
SUBSEQUENT SCREENING

The BPT may do second and third ETH screenings. Frequently, the third BPT screening will take place without second screening. The BPT can designate a case a PC 1170.2(a) case at any point during the screening process.

If the BPT determines that an inmate is a PC 1170.2(a) (no ETH necessary), then the correctional case records manager shall update the CDC Form 144 to reflect that change.

The third BPT screening shall be reflected on BPT Form 1091. The original shall remain with the C-file with copies going to BPT Headquarters, Research, and the inmate.

If the case is an overdue PC 1170.2(a) case, or scheduled for release within 60 days according to the DSL calculation, the case shall be referred to P&CSD within five days of discovery. The CDC Form 611 shall be identified as a priority case.

73030.17.3.6
EXTENDED TERM
HEARING

PC 1170.2(b) and 3041.5 require that the inmate be notified within 90 days of receipt into the Department if he/she is scheduled for an ETH and the hearing must be held within 120 days of receipt. The 120 days is computed from the latest of the date:

- Of reception.
- Of return to prison from court.
- On return to prison from another jurisdiction following service of a commitment to which a California term is ordered to be served consecutively.
- An amended Abstract of Judgment is received by CDC.
